

Jirasak ANOUJOHN

Born in 1980, Lopburi, Thailand

Jirasak's work demonstrates the life experience and the passage of time through the wrinkles on the elderly's face. A desire for working on charcoal is to create dramatic and realistic drawings. This allows him to produce high-contrast images that are visually bold and emotionally expressive.

Education

B.A in Art, Rajamangala University of Technology Thanyaburi, Bangkok, Thailand

Awards

2015 – Award Winner, The 5th Asia Plus Art Exhibition, Thailand

Fourth Prize, The 17th Panasonic Contemporary Painting Competition, Thailand

2014 – Purchase Prize, Drawing, The 3rd Bangkok Triennale International Print and Drawing Exhibition

Most Promising Artist of the Year Award, The 5th UOB Painting of the Year, Thailand

Solo Exhibition

Emotion Nude Exhibition, Chamjuri Art Gallery, Bangkok, Thailand

Time and Faith Exhibition, Krung Thai Art Gallery, Bangkok, Thailand

Charcoal Drawing Exhibition, Chamjuri Art Gallery, Bangkok, Thailand